KINDNESS

Mark Twain describes kindness as “a language the deaf can hear and the blind can see.” Kindness is a disposition to be gracious, friendly, sympathetic, benevolent, and generous. In a world given to hatred and revenge, it is refreshing to experience kindness.

The kindness of God can change even the cold and callous heart. Some think of God as the Great Avenger – always looking for opportunities to stomp us into passive submission to His sovereign will. Others see Him as an overly permissive grandfather who “lovingly” indulges the wicked rebellion of His people. But, God is represented by neither extreme. He is the perfect blend of both love and righteousness. Paul mentioned both characteristics when he wrote: “Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God’s kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off” (Rm. 11:22). We must avoid unbalanced perspectives of God. He possesses perfect justice and holiness; but, also, infinite love and kindness.

Jesus perfectly demonstrated these qualities in His life. If we would develop a kinder disposition, we must follow His example and “put on a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience...” (Col. 3:12). A parallel thought is found in Paul’s letter to the Ephesians where he writes: “And be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you” (Eph. 4:32). Both of these passages highlight the tremendous love and mercy of God in sending His Son to die on the cross for us. When we struggle to show kindness to others, we should pause and reflect on how kindly we have been treated by our Father. This will help us show kindness to others in the things we do and say. In this way, the language of kindness will be heard by the deaf and seen by the blind.

How Wealthy Are We?

No matter how much wealth the rich young ruler had, he could not ride in a car or fly in a plane, get a shot of penicillin, get a flu shot or take any of a multitude of patent medicines, have surgery, turn on an electric light, wash dishes in heated running water, sleep on an inner spring mattress, listen to recorded music, talk on the telephone, or any number of other things you could list. There is much, much more.

Dear Lord, if he was rich, what am I?
